

Let Go And Let God
written by Victoria Bowlin

Intro:

Let go and let God have His way

Chorus:

Let go and let God have His way, come on let him change you today
Just pray and obey, He knows the steps that you must take
Let go and let God have His way

The problems of this life may have you down, and it seems like no hope can be found
Cast your burdens on the Lord, and all the things that had you bound They'll melt away, and God will take and turn your life around

Let go and let God have His way, come on let him change you today
Just pray and obey, He knows the steps that you must take
Let go and let God have His way

When your mind is filled with worry and self doubt, and it seems like there is no way out
Put your trust in the Master, for He knows your every need
Let go of all your troubles, and let God take the lead, let God take the lead

Chorus:

Let go and let God have His way, come on let him change you today
Just pray and obey, He knows the steps that you must take
Let go and let God have His way

Chorus:

Let go and let God have His way, come on let him change you today
Just pray and obey, He knows the steps that you must take
Let go and let God have His way
