

Silent Prayers
written by Victoria Bowlin

Verse 1:

When words don't seem to come out right, God sees your heart
And when you're in the midst of turmoil, and all hope seems out of sight
Don't be alarmed for God can hear you anytime you pray
Whether it's in a spoken word or in the things you cannot say

Chorus:

I'm so glad God hears the silent prayers
He knows each answer before they're even said
He hears each thought when words cannot be found
Sometimes the greatest prayers are prayed without a sound

Verse 2:

Sometimes you're in a situation where words cannot be said
But your heart cries out to God, and your hungry soul is fed
Let not your heart be troubled in times of dismay
For in a silent prayer, there is power to break sin's chains

Chorus:

I'm so glad God hears the silent prayers
He knows each answer before they're even said
He hears each thought when words cannot be found
Sometimes the greatest prayers are prayed without a sound

Chorus:

I'm so glad God hears the silent prayers
He knows each answer before they're even said
He hears each thought when words cannot be found
Sometimes the greatest prayers are prayed
